- 2.1 Initial Fees. The (a) down payment specified in the applicable Order Form (the "Down Payment"), and (b) rate buy down payment specified in the applicable Order Form (the "Rate Buy Down Payment") shall be due and payable as of the date on which Host, and Client have both executed an Order Form in the same or a substantially similar form included as Exhibit A.

EXECUTABLE COPY

any applicable Minimum Managed Service Fees by fifty percent (50%) until the XBX reference rate exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00). Upon the end of any period of Adverse Market Conditions, an additional thirty (30) calendar days of Adverse Market Conditions is required to receive any further reduced Minimum Managed Services Fee.

On or around the first day of every month during the Term of this Agreement, Client shall pay Host the Managed Service Fees, as set forth in Exhibit A, as well as any prior repair services performed and invoiced by Host. Host shall "true-up" any difference between Client's estimated and actual monthly power usage through a debit or credit for the difference between Client's actual and estimated monthly power usage on the following month's invoice, as the Managed Service Fee is calculated based upon power usage.
- 2.6 Payment Currency. Except for payments made in United States Dollars (or equivalent USD/T), Host reserves the right to reject any payment, or require additional payment based on the conversion rate of such payment to U.S. Dollars (if applicable).

3.3 Termination.

- A. Termination for Cause; Event of Default. This Agreement may be terminated by either Party, at any time for one (1) or more of the following events of default:
 - (1) The non-terminating Party breaches any material term of this Agreement and fails to cure such breach (if susceptible to cure) within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of written notice of the same;

Termination in Consequence of Force Majeure Event. If a Force Majeure Event shall have occurred that has affected a Party's performance of its obligations under this Agreement and that has continued for a continuous period of one hundred eighty (180) days, then the other Party shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Party whose performance is so affected by the Force Majeure Event. If at the end of the thirty (30) day notice period the Force Majeure Event shall still continue, this Agreement shall be deemed terminated in accordance with such notice of termination. Upon such termination for a Force Majeure Event, neither Party shall have any liability to the other under this Agreement other than any such liabilities that have accrued prior to such termination, which shall be refunded from thirty (30) days of the Host receiving a notice of termination under this Section. For clarity, Host shall return all deposits, Down Payments, and the remaining, pro rata portion of the Rate Buy Down Payment not applied to Client Payment's Schedule as of the date of termination to Client within thirty (30) days of termination under this Section.

3.4 Effect of Default.

- A. Client Remedies. Client may pursue any of the remedies in this Section for Host's non-performance of its obligations under this Agreement; however, these remedies do not constitute any limitation on Client seeking additional remedies available in law or equity, nor does Client's forbearance to enforce one or more of the remedies set forth herein constitute a waiver of the right to exercise such remedy at a later date. In the event of Host's non-performance of its obligations under this Agreement, Client shall be entitled to a refund of any and all fees paid to Host for— (i) the three (3) service month's preceding the then-current service month, (ii) any Down Payment of Managed Services not rendered during the Initial or Renewal Term, and (iii) the remaining, pro rata portion of the Rate Buy Down Payment not applied to the Client's Payment Schedule as enumerated in Exhibit A as of the date of termination, as applicable. Unless applicable law requires a longer period, any action against Host in connection with this Agreement must be commenced within two (2) years after the purported cause of the action has accrued. Client agrees to look first to Client's insurance to recover for injury or damages in the event the insurance policies required by Article 1 cover the losses or injuries.
- B. Host Remedies. Host may pursue any of the remedies in this Section; however, these remedies do not constitute any limitation on Host seeking additional remedies available in law or in equity, nor does Host's forbearance to enforce one or more of the remedies set forth herein constitute a waiver of the right to exercise such remedy at a later date.

- (1) Termination Payment. If any invoice amount shall be due and unpaid on the fifteenth (15th) calendar day following the deadline for payment as stated on the invoice and pursuant to this Agreement, the Host may:
 - (i) redirect and utilize the Client Equipment for the Host's benefit until such usage by the Host equals on the everyday exchange rate of Coinbase, after payment of all applicable digital currency taxes and compliance expenses, as well as all expenses incurred from the operation of the Client Equipment, the total unpaid Managed Service Fees remaining in the Initial or Renewal Term, as applicable ("Mining Termination Payment"), or

- (2) Client Equipment Forfeiture. In the event Client fails to cure a material breach within sixty (60) calendar days of the date of expiration or termination of the Agreement, title over such Client Equipment as is needed to offset the outstanding balance or Termination Payment shall transfer to Host. In such an event, Client shall have ten (10) business days to pay the outstanding balance of the deficiency, with interest, in which case title to the Client Equipment previously transferred to Host shall revert to Client.
